

Meet the Artist!

≡ ARIAN MOLINA SOCA ≡

MONDAY, JUNE 23 — FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 2025

Guest Teacher—Pre-Professional Day Intensive Program

Thursday, June 26, 12:00-12:30 pm. Parents and other interested persons are invited to join students in our 3rd floor studios for an informal question and answer session. This is a unique opportunity for you to meet one of our distinguished guest teachers — don't miss it!

Arian Molina Soca began his ballet studies in 2001 at the Alfonso Pérez Isaac Vocational School of Art and then, in 2006, joined the National Ballet School in Havana under the guidance of Elena Canga and Yuneisi Rodríguez, among other notable professors. Throughout his studies, Arian participated in a range of competitive events, including the 2008 International Ballet Teaching Academy Encounter, where he was awarded the bronze medal. He also participated in the Inter-Academy Encounters held in Mazatlán, Mexico in 2008 and then again in Johannesburg, Cape Town, and Pretoria, South Africa in 2009.

Arian joined Philadelphia Ballet as a principal dancer for our 2015/2016 season, performing a range of works from the contemporary to the classic. He has danced principal and featured roles that include Ben Stevenson's Cinderella (Prince), Nacho Duato's Remansos, Christopher Wheeldon's DGV: Danse à Grande Vitesse, Angel Corella's Le Corsaire (Conrad), and George Balanchine's Western Symphony (Fourth Movement).

Prior to Philadelphia Ballet, Arian danced with the Cuban National Ballet, which he joined in 2010 (upon graduation from the National Ballet School in Havana) and danced under the artistic and technical guidance of Alicia Alonso. He was promoted to first soloist in 2011 and principal dancer in 2012. While with the company, Arian performed internationally in North and South America, Europe, China, and South Africa. Arian also had the privilege of participating in performances to honor legendary Cuban dancer Alicia Alonso: first in 2012 at the Viva Alicia! Gala at the Bolshoi Theater in Moscow on the occasion of her 90th birthday; then again in 2013 at a 20th Anniversary Gala at the Teatro de la Zarzuela in Madrid; and finally in 2013 at the International Ballet Gala at the Teatro at Montecasino in Johannesburg. Arian is The Mrs. Henry F. Harris Principal Dancer. Arian's repertoire includes soloist roles in major works of the romantic-classical period of the 19th century and contemporary works created by both Cuban and foreign choreographers. He is considered one of the most promising contemporary dancers to emerge from the Cuban School of Ballet.

